

Do Justice, Do Right Entertainment - Sat 10/10/09

Through music, dance, drama and poetry readings we hope to expand our understanding of struggles that people in our midst experience.

10:30 AM - Vernetta Rogers and Tom Jones: Folk and gospel songs of peace and justice. A survivor of Hurricane Katrina, Vernetta not only sings but carries forward her mission as an ordained minister to heal divides. She is accompanied by Tom on the piano, guitar and banjo.

11:00 AM - Gospel Recovery Jubilee Choir: Director, Mark Shaffer. Celebrating the efforts and journey of recovering people that are set free and staying free from addictions.

11:30 AM - Burundian Choir. A group of men and women refugees from Burundi in Africa, who love to sing and dance

12:00 PM - Original Dance performances

Yvonne Taylor Trio performing a dance piece from Bollywood film, Slumdog Millionaire.

Kahphira Palmer: Teacher, performer and choreographer will perform Haitian dance pieces.

1:00 PM - Bagwis Collective: Music of pro-people community development of Philippino-Americans (band and vocal)

1:30 PM - Original Poetry performed by :

Carol Gloor, Lawyer, United Church Member and published poet for over 25 years

Lani Montreal: A writer, teacher and performer whose works have been published and produced in the U.S., Canada, the Philippines and cyberspace.

sarwat rumi: A bilingual/Bengali Muslim who works toward social justice as a vigilante poet, performer and teaching artist.

2:00 PM - Circle of Friends: - A Chicago based musical group united voices and instruments (guitar, mandolin and banjo) performing folk songs from the 60's and beyond.

2:30 PM - CIRCA-Pintig: A cultural, drama group of the Filipino American community performing a drama piece focusing on transgender youth called "Charlie." Written and directed by Louie Pascasio.

3:30 PM - United Church of Rogers Park Choir: Director, Mark Bowman. Performing songs that inform and deepen the faith life of a multicultural and justice-seeking community.