10:00 to 11:00 THIRST (1 hour)

Is water part of a shared "commons", a human right for all people? Or is it a commodity to be bought, sold and traded in a global marketplace? Some have said that the looming freshwater crisis is the greatest environmental and human rights crisis of our time. This film raises powerful questions about this crisis.

11:15 to 12:15 HUNGER NO MORE (1 hour)

TV documentary presented by the National Council of Churches. This film takes an unflinching look at the persistent problem of hunger in the 21st century. . . and offers solutions.

12:30 to 1:45 FRESH (1 hour 15 minutes)

New thinking about what we are eating. FRESH celebrates the farmers, thinkers and business people across America who are reinventing our food system. They offer a practical vision of food and our planet's future.

2:00 to 2:50 SHORT FILMS

Food and Faith (15 minutes)

Muslim tradition and charity forge bonds between urban communities and sustainable farms.

Making the Desert Bloom (14 minutes)

In remote western China, clean water, a terraced hillside and a healthy herd of livestock represent the hope that someday this barren land will bloom in full.

If We Had Water (20 minutes)

In drought-stricken northeast Brazil, MCC works with families and farmers to build cisterns and dams and provide training in crop and livestock farming.
